NATIONAL LEAGUE BATTING. Roush is Leading Hitters With an Advantage of 30 Points.

Eddie Roush, pacemaker of the race for National league latting honors, is able to breathe a bit more freely this week. Benny Kanif, one of his most week. Benny Kauff, one of his most dangerous contemporaries of a week ago, has been shaken off in the mad swirl. Rogers, Hornsby and Crulse, who have crowded Roush most closely all the way, have both passed Kauff again, though neither is beyond striking distance by Benny. Roush, however, has nearly 30 points th eadvantage of Hornsby, who is in the runner-up position.

Robert Lindley Murray, one of Cali-fornia's stalwart sons, proved himself the greatest player in the land by crushing Nathaniel W. Niles of Boston ies. The outcome of the game was never in doubt as the sallors were mystified whenever Bush cut loose with his "stuff." A prominent feature of the game was the fine defensive playing of the local boys, who pulled off a number of sensational plays. The "subs" put up a good game of ball but they were outclassed in all departments of the game. One of the largest crowds of the season witnessed the game. Norwich lined up as follows: Walsh c, Bush p, Calkins 1b, Kane 2b, Clabby ss, McBurney 3b, Holland 1f, Houlihan cf and J. In the last set the Longwood player had lost the snap in his strokes. He was no longer able to cover up the holes in his court with his customary speed of foot, and his confidence deserted him as he tried in vain to hold his opponent in check.

Willimantic

Nov. 30—Alumni at Willimantic.

The team promises to be unusually good this year, as there will be 15 of last year's squad in school, six of them veterans: Arthur Lamoureux, sub, Earl Tucker (captain), halfback, Earl Kenyon, halfback, Murray Tighe, guard, Stanley Sumner, center, and lawrence Costello, guard. The coach will be Raymond Parker of the faculty. Score by innings:

Most Powerful Talisman. In Rev. James Ridley's "Tales of the Genii" one of the characters is Abudah, a rich merchant of Bagdad, who is haunted every night by a horrible hag. Seeking in a dream the talisman of Oromanes, which insures earthly happiness, he finds it in love of God and submission to the divine will. With the hag locked up and so free himself from his nightly torment. An Easy Mark. Lessing, the celebrated German poet was remarkable for a frequent absence of mind. Having missed money at different times, without being able to discover who took it, he determined to put the honesty of his servants to the test and left a handful of gold on the table. "Of course, you counted it?" said one of his friends. "Counted it!"

said Lessing, rather embarrassed; "no,

I forgot that." Darkest Just Before Dawn. When you get in a tight place and everything goes against you until it seems as if you cannot hold on a minute longer-never give up; for that is just the place and the time that the tide will turn.-Harriet Beecher Stowe,
